The Vision for Education within a Church of England Academy

There are fundamental reasons, rooted in the Bible, which have motivated centuries of Christian involvement in schooling in this country and around the world. The God of all creation is concerned with everything related to education.

There is a fresh articulation of the Church of England's vision for education as we meet the challenges and take the opportunities offered by the present situation. It is not simply for Church schools but, recognising the Church of England's involvement in education over many centuries, seeks to promote educational excellence everywhere, for everyone. In Church schools like St Edward's Church of England Academy, the deeply Christian foundation for this vision will be seen explicitly in teaching and learning both in RE and across the curriculum, and also in the authentically Christian worship and ethos. The Church's vision for education can be expressed and promoted as one of human flourishing that inspires what the school is and does.

The vision is deeply Christian, with the promise by Jesus of 'life in all its fullness' at its heart. This vision embraces the spiritual, physical, intellectual, emotional, moral and social development of children and young people. We offer a vision of human flourishing for all, one that embraces excellence and academic rigour, but set them in a wider framework. This is worked out theologically and educationally through four basic elements which permeate our vision for education:

- Wisdom
- Hope
- Community
- Dignity

The vision, in line with the Church of England's role as the established Church, is for the common good of the whole human community and its environment, whether national, regional or local. It is hospitable to diversity, respects freedom of religion and belief, and encourages others to contribute from the depths of their own traditions and understandings. It invites collaboration, alliances, negotiation of differences, and the forming of new settlements in order to serve the flourishing of a healthily plural society and democracy, together with a healthily plural educational system.

- Christian – a community where we learn from the teachings of Jesus so that we can contribute to the family of St Edward's and beyond
- Teamwork – an environment where we work together so we can all achieve our potential

Discipline Policy and Procedure

1. Introduction and Interpretation

- 1.1 The purpose of this policy and procedure is to set out the standards of conduct expected of our colleagues and to ensure that all disciplinary matters are dealt with fairly and consistently. This procedure does not deal with performance or sickness absence issues as these are dealt with under separate policies.
- 1.2 Any reference to 'the employer' refers to St. Edward's Church of England Academy. The 'appropriate level of authority' should be determined according to the employer's decision making structure. This policy applies to employees of the employer, referred to in this policy as colleagues.
- 1.3 The policy and procedure apply to all colleagues, regardless of length of service, but and can be varied from time to time in consultation with the recognised trade unions.
- 1.4 This policy will be monitored periodically to judge its effectiveness and will be updated in accordance with changes in the law. In particular, the organisation will monitor the impact on equality and fairness and consult appropriately on any proposed changes.

2.0 General Principles

- 2.1 All managers have a duty to ensure that they and all the colleagues they are responsible for are aware of, and comply with, the employer's policies and procedures. Managers are also responsible for making sure that colleagues know when they are not achieving or maintaining the expected standards of conduct or behaviour.
- 2.2 All colleagues have a responsibility to be aware of and conduct themselves in line with the employer's policies, the law and maintain acceptable standards of conduct and behaviour. Where relevant, colleagues must adhere to codes of practice or standards associated with their profession, trade or occupation. Colleagues must also cooperate with disciplinary investigations as required.
- 2.3 The aim of the procedure is to set out and maintain the required standards of conduct and encourage improvement.

2.4 We are committed to equality and diversity and will make reasonable adjustments to the application of this policy and procedure in line with our equal opportunities commitment.

3.0 Acceptable Behaviour and Conduct

3.1 The employer expects all colleagues to meet high standards of behaviour and conduct, including the relevant code of conduct. Examples of the types of expected standards of behaviour are detailed in this policy see 15.1.

4.0 Minor Conduct Issues and an Informal Approach

4.1 For minor conduct issues, your line manager will adopt an informal approach to help, guide or advise you in improving your conduct. Your line manager will only consider dealing with minor disciplinary breaches through the formal stages of the procedure if your misconduct continues or the misconduct potentially more serious.

4.2 Cases of minor misconduct are usually best dealt with informally through a confidential conversation about the concerns and actions required to improve your conduct. In some cases, your line manager may decide that additional training, coaching and advice may be what is needed.

4.3 The purpose of any informal meeting is to improve your conduct, to identify and examine any areas of concern and to provide a reasonable opportunity for you to respond and to identify the factual accuracy of any concern that has been raised. You and your line manager must ensure that you understand any future expectations of your conduct and, where appropriate, to develop an action plan leading to improvements in your conduct. You will be asked to agree that the action plan is achievable and realistic and you should raise any concerns that you have about the action plan with your manager. Notes of any discussions and follow-up correspondence will be kept on your personal file, however there will be no note made on your disciplinary record.

4.4 Where the behaviour causing concern may be related to an underlying relationship issue, it may be appropriate to consider an independent third party, such as a mediator, to help resolve the situation rather than disciplinary action.

St Edward's Church of England Academy

- 4.5 In the event that the matter cannot be resolved informally or the matter is too serious, the formal disciplinary process will apply. Although the stages of the disciplinary process will normally be followed sequentially the formal process may commence at any stage taking account of the alleged misconduct.
- 4.6 No formal disciplinary action will be taken unless or until the allegations have been fully investigated.

5.0 Link with Other Policies and Procedures

- 5.1 Grievance Policy – Where you submit a complaint during disciplinary proceedings, this will not normally stop the proceedings from progressing. Where you raise a grievance during disciplinary proceedings:

The disciplinary proceedings may be temporarily suspended in order to deal with the grievance or

The grievance and disciplinary may be run concurrently where they are related.

- 5.2 Where you assert that disciplinary proceedings being undertaken are unlawfully discriminatory or are motivated by reasons other than misconduct, you can raise a grievance.
- 5.3 Managing Attendance at Work Policy - Where you are absent due to sickness whilst a disciplinary matter is pending, the managing attendance at work procedure will apply as normal. However, those responsible for keeping in touch would not normally be the same people involved in the handling of your case. Under these arrangements due regard will be given to information provided by medical professionals including, Occupational Health and your own GP. As appropriate we will arrange for you to see Occupational Health for them to assess your health generally and whether or not you are fit to participate in these procedures. Being absent from work due to sickness will not automatically stop the disciplinary procedure progressing.

6.0 Formal Disciplinary Process

- 6.1 Prior to any formal disciplinary decision being made, the following steps will be taken:
- An investigation will be carried out in accordance with the Investigation Procedure. If allegations have been made against you, you will be notified of the nature of the allegations that are to be investigated prior to the Investigation Meeting. The extent of investigation involved will vary depending on the allegations in question and the circumstances of the case. Investigations will be dealt with as confidentially as is reasonably practicable and sensitively, in line with the Investigations Procedure.

- If following investigation, it is reasonably believed that there are grounds for disciplinary action, you will be required to attend a Disciplinary Hearing
- You will be invited to the hearing in writing in accordance with the Formal Meeting Procedure
- You will be provided with written details of the allegations against you to be presented to you at the hearing writing at least 10 working days before the meeting/hearing
- You must provide copies of any relevant evidence you intend to refer to, at least 3 working days before the hearing
- At the hearing, the case against you will be explained and you will have the opportunity to respond to the allegations

7. Right to be Accompanied

- 7.1 You have the right to be accompanied by a companion at any meeting as part of the investigatory or formal disciplinary procedure. The companion may be a colleague, a trade union representative or an official employed by a trade union.
- 7.2 The companion is allowed to address the hearing, to put and sum up your case, respond on your behalf to any views expressed at the meeting and confer with you during the hearing. They may also request an adjournment and ask questions of anyone present. The companion does not, however, have the right to answer questions on your behalf, address the hearing if you do not wish it or prevent the employer from explaining their case. Other than confirming that all parties have the same documentation it would not normally be necessary to read out the content of the documentation.
- 7.3 Under this procedure, you do not have the right to be accompanied by anyone else (such as a spouse, partner, other family member or legal representative).
- 7.4 However, it would not normally be reasonable for you to insist on being accompanied by a companion whose presence would prejudice the hearing nor would it be reasonable for you to ask to be accompanied by a companion from a remote geographical location if someone suitable and willing was available on site.

St Edward's Church of England Academy

7.5 Where appropriate, eligible colleagues, for example those with disabilities or language difficulties, may have the attendance of a supporter or interpreter.

8. Suspension

8.1 Depending on the circumstances, you may be suspended from work on full pay during the investigation. Suspension on full pay is not a disciplinary penalty or a presumption of guilt. Suspensions will be carried out in accordance with the Suspension Procedure.

9. Action against Trade Union Representatives

9.1 Disciplinary action against a TU representative can lead to a serious dispute if it is seen as an attack on their functions. Whilst normal disciplinary standards apply to a TU representative's conduct as a colleague, the relevant full-time official should be notified of any action (including suspension) that the employer proposes to take. All reasonable efforts must be taken to ensure that disciplinary action is not taken against a TU representative until the relevant full-time official has had an opportunity to be present at any stage of the formal procedure.

10. Criminal Offences

10.1 Certain criminal offences may affect your suitability to continue in your role with the employer or damage their reputation. If you are charged with a relevant criminal offence you must inform your manager as soon as possible. We will not treat notification about criminal proceedings, or a conviction (including bind-over's and cautions), as an automatic reason for dismissal or for any other form of disciplinary action being taken. We will decide what action to take, if any, after we have reviewed the matter. The main consideration should be whether the conviction is one that makes you unsuitable for your job or affects the employer's reputation.

10.2 If you are subject to a criminal investigation, the employer will determine to what extent it needs to conduct its own investigation before deciding whether to proceed to formal disciplinary action. The employer will not usually wait for the outcome of any prosecution before deciding what action to take (unless specifically advised otherwise by the police). No decision to impose a disciplinary sanction or dismiss will be taken prior to giving you the opportunity to make representations.

10.3 If we have reasonable grounds to suspect that the potential misconduct involves child protection/safeguarding, fraud, systems abuse, theft, or any financial irregularity, we will notify the relevant agencies including the Local Authority Designated Officer for safeguarding (LADO), internal auditors and/or the police as soon as possible.

11.0 The Disciplinary Hearing

- 11.1 Formal hearings will be conducted in line with the Formal Meeting Procedure. You must make all reasonable efforts to attend a disciplinary hearing. If you or your companion is unable to attend a hearing you may propose a new date of no more than 5 working days from the date of the original date.
- 11.2 The manager will respond sensitively when a delay is required, for example, it may arise for a reason related to a disability or emergency involving dependants. We will arrange another hearing date if you provide a good reason for being unable to attend.
- 11.3 If you do not attend the hearing without good reason, it may be re-arranged but if you do not attend the rearranged meeting/hearing, a decision may be made in your absence. You may submit a written statement to be taken into consideration.
- 11.4 Where you are persistently unable or unwilling to attend the hearing without good cause the manager should make a decision on the evidence available.
- 11.5 The disciplinary hearing will be conducted under the Formal Meetings Procedure by the Deciding Manager with the appropriate level of authority under the school's decision making structure.
- 11.6 The Deciding Manager will explain the allegations against you and the evidence in support of those allegations. You will have the opportunity to respond to the allegations, which will include the presentation of your own evidence if you wish. You may request that a witness(s) attend the hearing except that where you rely on character witnesses we would ask that witness statements be provided. However, witnesses whose evidence is not challenged will not be called. Where a witness is required to attend the Deciding Manager will invite them in writing.
- 11.7 Minutes of formal meetings will be given to you for your information and copies of notes, letters and action plans should be retained by the line manager.

12.0 Disciplinary Penalties

12.1 Stage 1 – First Written Warning

A first written warning may be issued by the Deciding Manager and will usually be appropriate for a first act of misconduct where there are no previous warnings and where any agreed adjustments and other support has been made or provided. The warning will remain active for 6 months and it should be disregarded for disciplinary purposes after this period.

12.2 Stage 2 – Final written warning

A final written warning may be issued by the Deciding Manager in the following circumstances:

- where there has been a further act of misconduct while an existing warning is in effect, or
- the seriousness of the misconduct is sufficient to warrant such a warning, even though no previous warning may have been issued

12.2.1 The warning will remain active for 12 months and it should be disregarded for disciplinary purposes after this period.

12.3 Stage 3 – Dismissal

Only an appropriate level of authority in line with the employer's decision making structure can take a decision to dismiss and where any agreed adjustments and other support has been made or provided. You may be dismissed in the following circumstances:

- Where, within the duration of the final written warning, the necessary improvement in behaviour has not been achieved and any agreed adjustment and other support has been made or provided. This would be with notice or payment in lieu of notice; or
- where there has been a further act of misconduct while an existing warning is in effect
- where it is reasonably believed that you have committed an act of gross misconduct. Gross misconduct will usually result in summary dismissal without notice and without pay in lieu of notice. Examples of gross misconduct are detailed in the policy

St Edward's Church of England Academy

12.3.1 The Deciding Manager may at their discretion consider alternatives to dismissal. Examples of such alternatives include demotion, loss of seniority, reduction in pay, compulsory training. If such an alternative is applied, it may also be accompanied by a final written warning.

13.0 Warnings

13.1 Where a warning is issued, this will be confirmed to you in writing within 5 working days of the hearing. The warning will state the misconduct that led to the warning, the action or improvement required by you, the duration of the warning and the likely consequences of the action of improvement not being taken and/or any further misconduct. You will also be advised of the right of appeal and the person to whom an appeal should be made.

14.0 Appeals

- 14.1 Where disciplinary action has been taken, if you are dissatisfied with that decision, you can appeal. Your appeal must be in writing and set out the grounds of your appeal in line with the list below and include all the information you wish to rely on at the appeal hearing. You must send your appeal to the Appeal Deciding Manager within 5 working days of the date you received the letter notifying you of the disciplinary decision. The action taken at the disciplinary hearing will remain in force pending the outcome of the appeal. You must be appealing against either:
- the finding that you were guilty of committing the alleged act (or acts) of misconduct where the evidence did not support this finding
 - the severity of the disciplinary sanction imposed taking into account the nature of the misconduct and the mitigating circumstances
 - the fact that you don't feel the correct procedure was followed
 - the fact that new evidence that was not considered in the disciplinary hearing has come to light that would change the outcome
 - the sanction is inconsistent with how others have been treated
 - there was unlawful discrimination in the handling of the disciplinary
- 14.2 You will be invited to the Appeal Hearing in writing in accordance with the Formal Meeting/Hearing Procedure. You will be given at least 10 working days' notice of the appeal hearing. You have the right to be accompanied at the Appeal Hearing by your companion.

St Edward's Church of England Academy

- 14.3 You must provide copies of any relevant evidence you intend to refer to, at least 3 working days before the hearing.
- 14.4 The outcome of the appeal may be to overturn or confirm the original decision or apply a different, but not more serious, sanction. You will be advised of the appeal outcome, which will be confirmed in writing within 5 working days of the appeal hearing. There is no further right of appeal.
- 14.5 You are not entitled to raise a further complaint under the employer's Grievance Policy in relation to the same grounds of appeal.

15. Examples of Standards of Behaviour

- 15.1 The following are examples of the behaviour expected the employer of all its colleagues, although the list is not exhaustive:
- You should attend work punctually and regularly, in line with operational requirements
 - You should carry out reasonable requests/instructions from your managers promptly and efficiently, and to the required standard
 - Time off must be approved in advance by the appropriate level of authority, usually your manager and be in line with your contract of employment
 - You must follow the procedures outlined in the Managing Attendance at Work policy when notifying the employer of your sickness absence
 - You must comply with all of the employer's policies and procedures, including but not limited to the Bullying and Harassment Policy, the relevant Code of Conduct, the ICT Acceptable Use Policy or the Health and Safety Policy
 - You must adhere to professional body and statutory guidelines, as appropriate, and act professionally at all times
 - In your own interests, and in the interests of the employer as a whole, you should bring serious breaches of the employer's policies or procedures to the attention of management

16. Examples of Gross Misconduct

16.1 The following are examples of gross misconduct, but this list is not exhaustive:

- Action that has caused, or is likely to cause a pupil to suffer significant harm
- Failure to take action to protect a pupil whom you believe is suffering, or is likely to suffer, significant harm
- Actual or threatened violence or bullying behaviour
- Theft or unauthorised removal of property, fraud, falsification of the employer's records or any other dishonesty
- Deliberate or serious damage to the employer's property or that of a colleague, customer, contractor or authorised visitor
- Serious negligence which does or could result in loss, damage or injury
- Deliberately accessing, copying or distributing pornographic, offensive, obscene or inappropriate material on the internet or paper media
- Being under the influence of alcohol, drugs or other similar substances at work which may give reasonable grounds to suspect your ability to undertake your duties or being in possession of illegal or intoxicating drugs on site
- Refusal to obey reasonable instructions or any other act of serious insubordination
- Any action or behaviour which brings the employer into serious disrepute
- Serious breach of health and safety rules
- Unauthorised disclosure of confidential information
- Acceptance of bribes or other secret payments
- Harassment or any act of discrimination towards any one you come into contact with because of your work
- Convictions relating to activities outside work but which have a significant and direct bearing on your employment and duties with the employer and its reputation
- Misrepresenting at any time, including at your appointment with the employer, any previous positions you have held, your qualifications, date of birth, declaration of health, or a failure to disclose a criminal offence or pending criminal action subject to the provisions of the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974
